BANCROFT PUBLIC LIBRARY

MATERIALS RECONSIDERATION POLICY

The Bancroft Library believes in freedom of information for all, and does not practice censorship. The selection of library materials is predicated on the patron's right to read and freedom from censorship by others. Library materials may be controversial and any given item may offend some person. Selections for the library are made solely on the merits of the material in relation to the development of a collection that serves the needs and interests of a diverse population.

The Bancroft Library Board of Trustees recognizes that a collection of diverse materials may result in some complaints or requests for reconsideration. Bancroft Library's Materials Selection Policy guides the development and continuous evaluation of the collection to reflect Bancroft Library's mission to uphold the principals of intellectual freedom and the public's right to know by providing access to information reflecting all points of view for people of all ages.

Library Procedure:

1. The library holds the choice of reading and viewing materials as a purely individual matter. Patrons are free to reject books and other materials of which they do not approve. Patrons may not exercise censorship to restrict the freedom of others.
2. Responsibility for materials selected and read, heard or viewed by children and adolescents rests with their parents or legal guardians. Library selection decisions are not influenced by the possibility that materials may be accessible to minors.
3. The Library does not indicate through the use of labels or other devices particular points of view or perspectives contained in library materials.
4. No items are sequestered to control access.
5. A formal process for handling challenges will be followed to assure that challenges are handled in an attentive and consistent manner.
- 5-6. Reconsideration of an item for substantially similar concerns will not be entertained for a period of five years after a decision has been made.

How complaints will be handled:

1. Library staff member receiving a complaint will refer the complainant to the Library Director and have the person fill out the Materials Reconsideration Request Form. The staff member should explain that the library has materials for everyone, and everything goes through our selection process or is purchased because of patron requests.
2. If the patron wants to go forward with their challenge, they must submit the completed Materials Reconsideration Request Form. After that, the Director will review the material, search for critical information and awards, and put together a report.
3. The Director then responds to the patron with the decision on what will happen with the material. If unhappy with the response, the patron can then appeal the Director's decision to the Board of Trustees who will make the final decision.

Subject: Suggested language in your reconsideration policies

Hi All,

I was a panelist on a book challenge panel yesterday. My colleague, Ginger Tebo, is a school system librarian. Her school district has this language in their policy and procedures. I think you should think about including it in your reconsideration policies:

“Reconsideration of the item for substantially similar concerns will not be entertained for a period of five years after a decision has been made.”

PROUDFIT HALL – DISPLAYS & EXHIBITS POLICY

Display space is available at the Bancroft Public Library – Proudfit Hall lobby brick wall as a way to allow the Library and the community to share culture, art, information, history and experiences. Displays should reflect this intent while also ensuring that the display is appropriate for a wide range of ages. The display space is not intended to be used as a platform for expressing one belief or agenda over another. The Library welcomes displays on an equitable and impartial basis. Displays that are not made by the Library do not in any way constitute an endorsement by the Library of a person, event, group, belief or viewpoint.

Display spaces are available on a first-come, first-served basis. If there are multiple requests for a space made at the same time, preference is given to the Library and Library co-sponsored displays.

Display space is provided on an impartial basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of the individual or group requesting space.

The Library Director or designee reserves the right to inspect all displays prior to being displayed, and may deny the right to display items that are for commercial purposes, that are not appropriate for a wide range of ages, or that are illegal, obscene, defamatory or otherwise inappropriate for display at the Library.

All displays are to be hung using the picture rail on the brick wall. Displays shall not be attached (tape, pin, etc.) on walls, doors or windows.

With the exception of Library sponsored or co-sponsored events or approved art exhibits, display items may not be priced for sale. All transactions involving approved items, including pricing and sales, will be conducted by the artist.

Displays shall be limited to thirty (30) days and may be renewed if the space is available. Should a display item be left at the Library more than thirty (30) days after the end of the display period the Library may discard the items.

Both the Library and the displayer reserve the right to discontinue a display at any time and for any reason.

Should a display be discontinued by the Library, or the right to display be denied by the Library, the displayer may appeal the decision to the Bancroft Public Library Board of Trustees.

The Bancroft Public Library and its Board of Trustees are not responsible for any damage or theft to displayer's property while it is in Proudfit Hall.
